Description

Date: 1970 Location: Sigmaringen, Germany 16x20 250 Signed Description: Castle Hohenzollern, viewed through the fog at the top of the mountain, forest trees in the foreground. Castle Hohenzollern is the ancestral seat of the prussian-brandenburg line as well as of the electoral-catholic line of the House of Hohenzollern. It ranks among Europe's most beautiful and popular castles. The stunning panorama of the Swabian landscape has already been admired by Kaiser Wilhelm II: "The view from Castle Hohenzollern is truly worth a voyage." Only 28 printed and signed.
