Description

"This is also from a mural. In the fresco, the woman is bringing the lei to the alter." (JC 1975). Hindu Woman with Lei is a 1974 color serigraph by Jean Charlot that depicts his lifelong interest in Mexican folk imagery, family, and the working class. Charlot is best known for his extraordinary sense of color and the sublime simplicity of his compositions, reflecting Charlot's devotion to themes of family and the working class, revealing the universality of human nature. He was known as the "champion of every day," showing people doing things essential to them - the simple, everyday activities that makeup living. His exceptional knowledge of muralism and woodcut made Charlot famous in Hawai'i and throughout the world. Hindu Woman with Lei measures 15" x 20" and is unframed.
