Jean-Claude Picot (b. 1933, France) - "La Petite Croisiere" (1999) (The Little Cruise) is a limited edition serigraph in color on wove paper, numbered 83/350, and signed in pencil. The image size is 7.25 x 10 inches, and with the beautiful framing and matting, the piece is 16" x 19." A Certificate of Authenticity is available and shipping is free in the USA. Since 1956, Jean Claude Picot has been working exclusively as a professional artist. He is greatly influenced by the works of the Fauvist masters like Vlaminck, Derain, and Matisse, whose exuberant canvases drew great attention in the first decade of the 20th century for their revolutionary use of color, texture, and abstract form. These artists have inspired Picot for decades and you can find many similar characteristics in his work. Picot has developed a unique style that recalls a Post-Impressionist application of color, combined with the expressive qualities of form and line. His compositions are often calming, possessing his
