Description

In the Style of JACKSON POLLOCK - Original Abstract Drip-Art Oil/Canvas ORIGINAL oil on canvas, created as an homage to the legendary artist, Jackson Pollock. This piece is actually signed on the reverse by the maker, S. Grossman. A stunning use of colors in a modern drip-art painting. It is a high quality work, stretched, mounted and ready to hang, measuring 18" x 24." This is NOT an original Jackson Pollock to our knowledge and no such claim is made. Ships free in the US. Jackson Pollock (1912-1956) was an influential American painter, and the leading force behind the abstract expressionist movement in the art world. By the mid 1940s, Jackson Pollock introduced his famous 'drip paintings', representing a most original body of work that made an impact on the course of American art. Often, his canvases were either set on the floor, or laid out against a wall, rather than being fixed to an easel. Pollock allowed the paint to drip onto the canvas from the paint can. Instead of
