Description

Isaac Maimon (b. 1951, Israel) - Two (2) Vintage Plate-Signed Prints by the Israeli artist known for painting stylish, sensual women in Parisian café society motifs. Each print contains a gold signature and the works of art are matted and enclosed in a simple gold frame. The colorful pieces complement one another perfectly. Each work measures 14" x 11" in the frame(s) and the image(s) are approximately 10" x 8." One depicts a woman wearing pastel colors, seated and carrying a pink parasol. The second ("Reader's Choice") is that of a lovely lady seated nonchalantly, taking a quiet moment to peruse an open book. Both are beautiful prints using a palate of soft pastel colors. Shipping is free in the USA. Please Note: These pieces have not been examined out of the frames.
