Description

Abraham Hunter - "A Winter's Silent Night" - This decorative wood art print measures 11" x 14" x 2," is weather resistant, and comes with a wire hanger attached, so it is ready to hang inside or outside. The distressed work of art depicts the pinkish hue of the last bit of sunset fading into the winter night sky, the golden glow of lanterns and lamps twinkling throughout the little country village, and a nearby pair of evergreens playing host to a crowd of little songbirds. Abraham Hunter started pursuing his artistic career at age 14. The wildlife artist studied nature first-hand and by using reference photos for his works in oil, acrylic, and some watercolor. His art is intricate in its detail to depict the outdoors with peace, comfort, joy, and the beauty of God's creation.
