Description

Our favorite painting this week is "Just Driving By" from the talented David Langevin. The bold lines and vivid colours depict a heritage home, reminding us of visiting, and family gatherings at a time when streets, house, and indeed everyday life, held the promise of warmth, friendship, and comfort. It's a bit like admiring Kelowna's heritage homes on streets like Pandosy, and Walnut. When you look at this painting, your eyes deliver a light touch to the heart!
