Description

Yaacov Agam (b. 1928) Spinning Polymorph (c. 1983) by the Israeli kinetic artist. This is a limited edition, double sided, spinning sculpture measuring 14.75 inches (37.5cm) in height by 15.25 inches (39cm) in width; and a depth of 4.5 inches (11.5cm). It consists of a double-sided silkscreen screen-print in colors that is folded accordion style inside a white laminate case on a rotating stand. Visible inside the window case, the screen-print is signed in ink by the artist with a Star of David as the "A" in Agam, and numbered (72/99). Please see the photos representing some of the many images that may be seen as the case is rotated. Condition: Lower laminated stand with partially detached laminate panel. Otherwise in good condition.
